March 17, 1983

1. That the North American GBC committee organize a multi pronged action against the US anti-cult movement as follows:

Legal action against false Newspaper articles, TV, Radio, etc. Text Books, Deprogrammers, and affirmative cases in general
- Distribute Prasadam
- Distribute books and magazines related to this issue
- Organize lobbying to state legislatures, Religions, media, schools and colleges, civic groups
- Vigorous edgense whenever lawsuits are filed against ISKCON.

The NA GBC committee will meet and resolve this during this Mayapur Festival.

March 17, 1983

Resolutions:

1. That temples in the USA and Canada be responsible for raising the minimum number of BTG subscriptions to insure the healthy growth of the BTG.

2. That all authors within ISKCON submit their proposed New-Book projects (intended for mass distribution) to the BBT trustees for their blessings at the annual Mayapur meeting.

3. That BBT publications shall only be sold to customers (for their book distribution) who are not attacking ISKCON Institutions or what ISKCON stands for. Any former member of ISKCON who preaches against ISKCON shall be legally disenfranchised and BBT publications shall not be sold to them in quantity by ISKCON members.

4. Annual awards will be presented in Mayapur for outstanding services in the area of Sankirtan in the following areas:

A - most successful zone
B - most improved zone (maha-large, large)
C - most successful temples (medium, small)
D - most improved temples (”)
E - top 10 SKP devotees

The award winners will be determined each year by the North American BBT.

5. That HH Krsnadas Swami work with HDG Bhakti Swarup Damodar Maharaj in India.

6. That all temples in North America (and elsewhere if desired) take up the Hare Krsna “Food For Life” program as outlined by Mukunda Goswami. We see this as a highly effective means to increase Prasadam Distribution and Book Distribution and for ISKCON to gain acceptance by the public as well as by government agencies.

7. That in North America, from now on, Gurukuls shall be developed first on a regional bases, and then from the regional schools local schools can be explained in a careful, methodical way.

8. That Lake Huntington Gurukul shall be funded by the combined efforts of all temples it services-by raising the tutions, and by taking the zones using the school as follows:

Rameswara Swami – $3800/month (for 10 children)
Satsvarupa Goswami – $1000/month (for 3 children)
Hrdayananda Goswami – $2000/month (for 15 children)
Rupanuga Prabhu – $1000/month (for 4 children)

- that NY zone will pay for all future expansion.

9. That New Srimad Bhagavatam volumes shall be printed at a rate of one every other month for the next year (6 volumes this year)

10. That the Seattle loan will be paid off in five years to each of the creditors in monthly payments proportionate to the amount borrowed from each one. Floating interest rates will be applied.

11. That New Vrindavan will send names and address of its visitors to the temples or zones where the visitors reside.

12. That Satsvarupa Swami will coordinate the travelling Ratha-yatra scheduling and financial needs in North America.

13. That IFR collection Day marathons and monthly donation quotas be assigned to each temple and not to each country as is presently being done.

14. That Atreya Rsi Prabhu shall decide the policies for book distribution at the San Francisco Airport and city.

15. That the Hyderabad New Naimasaranya farm project be accorded "International Project" recognition. That the GBC recommends to the BBT & MVT the allotment of Rs. 2 lakhs for implementation of irrigation development and similar essential pending works. This is in light of the extraordinary circumstances the project has experienced in the past year.

16. That the Ministry of Architecture be given the authority to recruit manpower according to standard ISKCON policies, and that men working for the ministry be considered as belonging to the ministry in the same way that other devotees are considered belonging to a certain Yatra or zone with respect to their moving to other zones and the regulations governing these matters. Whatever zone Surabhir Swami works in, he should work under the supervision and in coordination with the local GBC (eg: Delhi work should be done in conjunction with Gopal Krsna Goswami).

17. Giriraj Swami will address the temple presidents on the importance of fulfilling our commitments to the life members.

18. Anyone domiciled outside India will be allowed to become a life member in India provided the Rs.1000, or 1/3 of the membership donation, be remitted to the Samadhi fund (or the int'l India construction fund). As a credit to the Book fund on behalf of the overseas temple.

19. The ILMT committee will be renamed the ILM committee and will exist independently of the ILMT as a GBC committee.

20. The ILMT will take direction from the ILM committee, and Jalakara Prabhu will function under Srila Bhagavan Goswami as his GBC for the ILMT.

March 18, 1983

Resolutions:

1. That no SKP collectors mention the “Hare Krsna Food For Life” program as the program they are collecting for on sankirtan for ar least one year, in order to firmly establish the “Food For Life” program without any misrepresentation.

2. That the Bhaktivedanta Memorial Committee arrange to rent Srila Prabhupada’s apartments at 26 Second Ave., NY, and also the store front, if possible.

3. Every GBC member should submit proof of having implemented the 3-trustee principle on each property in his zone to Balavanta Prabhu within three months of Gaura Purnima,1983.

4. Any GBC who has not implemented the 3-trustee principle due to legal of technical difficulties must meet with Balavanta Prabhu to conclude the last possible arrangement by the next year at the latest.

5. Balavanta Prabhu will visit Europe during the year to help implement the property principle there.

6. Whereas the GBC has reason to believe that proceeds from the sale of the Gainesville temple have been wrongfully used for purposes other than a new temple for the Deities, the privilege committee is to investigate the responsible persons involved, and how the debt to Sri Sri Gaura – Nitai to be repaid.

7. The procedure for appealing to the privilege committee of the Governing Body Commission is:

Section 1. Jurisdiction of the privilege committee (pc).

1. All disputes arising from the activities of ISKCON. Such matters shall includes disputes between temples, zones, businesses, individual members of the society or any other ISKCON entities including but not limited to corporations.

2. The PC shall also have jurisdiction over many complaints alleging wrongful behaviour on the party of any ISKCON authority of member.

3. Under appropriate circumstances, the PC may, at its discretion, hear complaints or grievances brought by members relative or guardian of an ISKCON member against any ISKCON authority, member of legal entity.

Section II: Method of petition.

1. Persons seeking to appeal disputes or grievances to the PC shall initially present such matters to the GBC with immediate jurisdiction or his own GBC representative, such GBC secretaries shall attempt to reach a solution and being unable to do so shall refer the matter to the PC chairman or if the complaint is not satisfied with the action taken by such GBC member, he may then appeal directly to the PC chairman.

2. GBC members having disputes or grievances with other GBC members, whether or not such matters arise directly or by reference from other members of the society or members of the public, shall first approach such other GBC member and attempt to reach a solution to the problem, if unable to do so, the complaint may then petition the chairman of the PC for a resolution of the dispute.

3. All such petition to the PC chairman, whether from GBC members or members of the society or the public shall be in writing and fully delineate the facts from which the dispute arose, the issues involved, and any pertinent arguments the complaint wishes to make. All GBC members and any complaints wishing to approach the PC chairman. All such answers must be full, candid, in writing, and timely replied. Such persons must also co-operate fully with any physical investigation. The PC shall at its discretion undertake, failure to do so will result either in dismissal of the complaint, default or whatever disciplinary action the PC may deem appropriate.

Section III: Responsibilities and powers.

1. The PC must undertake to hear and resolve all legitimate controversies brought before it. However the PC cannot initiate any investigation or inquiry unless a complaint as described above has been filed.

2. The GBC body, through its chairman, may initiate and investigation by the PC at any time and PC shall undertake such assignment.

3. Except in cases of assignments from the GBC chairman, the PC chairman shall determine the merit of any complaint filed with the PC and shall timely notify the GBC Chairman and all interested parties of his decision in writing. If a complaint is accepted by the PC chairman, the PC shall investigate and resolve the problem in a timely fashion. All such action shall be initially reported to the GBC chairman and then to all parties involved. All such reports shall be in writing.

4. The PC shall have authority to issue letters of discipline, make reports to the GBC body and make recommendations to the GBC body for the assessment of fines, removal of authority or other disciplinary action. The GBC shall give special consideration to any such recommendation which will be the product of careful and objective investigation and thought. The PC shall have the authority to assess costs, in proportion or in whole, against any party before it.

Section IV: Method of appeal from the privilege committee.

1. Any final decision of the PC or its chairman may be appealed to the GBC body by written notices to the GBC chairman. Such notice must be tendered to the chairman at least 30 days prior to the next annual Mayapur GBC meeting.

2. Decisions of the PC shall not be overturned unless the appealing party shall bring forward new evidence unavailable at the time of the PC investigation and/or sound arguments such that the GBC body becomes clearly convinced of the wrongness of the PC chairman.

3. The PC, with the approval of the GBC chairman, may require of the appealing party, to tender and appeal bond which may be forfeited at the discretion of the GBC should the appeal prove unsuccessful.

8. That Atreya Rsi Prabhu shall accept responsibility to pay back the outstanding debts to the life members in the Middle East unless he can convince them to otherwise dissolve them.

9. That Giriraj Maharaj shall investigate the charges on the latter of complaint regarding the Badrinath tour. He shall submit a report to the GBC officers within one month, especially covering the accounts for the tour, and the present status of Gaursundara Dasa.

10. For the next three years, HDG Tamal Krsna Goswami was enacted chairman of the privilege committee, and HDG Satsvarupa Goswami the secretary.
